Why Wyden and Merkley should back the deal with Iran

As senators, Ron Wyden and Jeff Merkley are diamonds in a coal bin. Unlike too many of their peers, they are serious men who put country above party and principle above politics, even when it may risk their political security — which is fitting since they occupy the seats of Mark Hatfield and Wayne Morse, legends who braved criticism to back the power of diplomacy to achieve military security. The Hatfield-Morse way became the Oregon way. It is in this light that I hope Wyden and Merkley will
